TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1889.

The Fateful Day.

The fateful day is upon us. It is a day upon which the people of Virginia are to decide momentous questions. It is a day that will long be remembered as the one upon which Virginia rode triumphantly over her enemies, or the one upon which she was dragged down into a slough of despond by unwarlike children. It is indeed big with the fate of the people of the good old mother of States and Statesmen. If MANROSE shall be elected Governor by the votes of seceders, carpet-baggers, and negroes, we will put on sackcloth and ashes and be as Job was in the days of his greatest trials and tribulations. Make it a day of triumph, and we will clothe ourselves in our best beautiful garments and rejoice as MANROSE rejoiced when her people had just "triumphed gloriously" over their enemies.

It is useless to indulge in guesses as to the probable result. The returns of their respective counties will be in the hands of our readers before this issue of the Dispatch will reach them. It can do no harm, however, to say that there is no good reason known to us why the Democratic majority for our candidates for State offices should be very large, nor why we should not elect a large majority of the members of both branches of the General Assembly. This is a modest claim, we believe, and we are not asking for anything more than a fair chance.

We shall today vote down the worst enemy Virginia has ever had. We shall vote down the traitorous Virginians who favor a national election-law, who would have us torn in twain, who would have us divided into two warring camps. We shall vote down the traitorous Virginians who would have us divided into two warring camps. We shall vote down the traitorous Virginians who would have us divided into two warring camps. We shall vote down the traitorous Virginians who would have us divided into two warring camps.

We shall vote down the man who would put the government of this city into the hands of commissioners appointed by him, self, turn out our efficient policemen, and put in place of them his own tools. How could he help appointing negro-policemen? Look at the negro letter-carriers; why are these appointed? Because there are six or seven thousand negro voters here and perhaps not one thousand white Republican voters. The same reason would compel the appointment of negro policemen.

We shall vote down the man who attempted to legislate out of office all the learned impartial circuit judges and to substitute for them a lot of shysters, no-knowledgeing alibis to WILLIAM MANROSE. What a mockery of justice--what a travesty upon courts--we should have suffered from if that notable plot had not been discovered and defeated.

liberty, by the faith that the good and the true will prevail.

Mississippi, have all the venom of demons, and would take any risk to degrade the people whom they now so thoroughly hate. The Advocate knows MANROSE and CHAMBERS. Par noble fraum--with a vengeance.

The political forces will be in battle array in a number of States to-day. New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Iowa, Virginia, and Mississippi will elect Governors (and New York and Pennsylvania will elect subordinate State officers, and Maryland will choose a Legislature that will elect a United States senator. In Maryland the fight is heated, especially in Baltimore, where there is a fusion ticket. Baltimore elects in addition to legislative candidates a mayor and City Council. In several States, but they are all of local interest.

As far as our information goes the outlook is bright for Democratic success on the average. New Jersey Democrats are confident; it is claimed that the "CAMBELLS are coming in Ohio"; Massachusetts Democrats are more than hopeful; the indications in New York favor the Democrats. In New York, Iowa will make a most gallant fight; Mississippi is solid; Maryland will answer the rallying cry of the true and the brave, and Pennsylvania will reduce her old-time Radical majority. As regards Virginia, we do not entertain a doubt; but she must make her majority for McKINNEY, TYLER, and SCOTT such that even should our friends in other States fail to do their duty her vote will be enough to elect 1890, so far as the South is concerned at least.

What might not be the effect on the voters of Hamilton county, Ohio, should the news go forth early today that all is well in Virginia for the Democrats. Hamilton county, which includes Cincinnati, is regarded by a great many astute Ohio politicians as the pivotal point in the State as regards the Buckeye Legislature.

White men of Virginia, the Old Dominion is the storm center of the election contests of the country to-day. Make it a day of triumph, and we will clothe ourselves in our best beautiful garments and rejoice as MANROSE rejoiced when her people had just "triumphed gloriously" over their enemies.

THE FRUIT OF VIOLENCE.

In no case is the fruit of violence in moderation more conspicuously shown by its fruit than in the case of the fruit of violence in moderation. The stomach and bowels are first painfully gripped, then the latter is expelled, and the process is repeated. This is far beyond the necessities of the case, most unnatural, excessively debilitating. The organs are incapacitated from resuming their function with normal moderation. An astringent is resorted to which reduces them to their former condition of inaction. To this monstrous and harmful remedy, the stomach and bowels are subjected, and the process is repeated. This is far beyond the necessities of the case, most unnatural, excessively debilitating.
